

Good morning!

As you know, last Sunday was Easter. Easter is when we celebrate the ultimate gift given to us by God—salvation. Through Jesus' life, death, and resurrection we were given salvation. That means that Jesus paid for our sins by dying on the cross.

This week I want to challenge you to think of other gifts that God has given you. What are the things in your life that you are very thankful for? I want you to think of at least four gifts from God that you have and either draw or write them on the following sheet (or a blank sheet of paper). In this time after Easter and with the illness and changes in the world around us, it is a perfect time to reflect on the good gifts that we have from above. God has given each of us some really amazing things, such as families, pets, toys, nature, and more! Fill the sheet with your gifts, hang it up to remind yourself of the love God has for you!

If you would like to, please send me a picture of it when you have it done. I would love to see what gifts you have! There is a picture of Eli's on here for an example, although it is a bit difficult to see.

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—Ephesians 2:8 (NIV)

Every good gift bestowed, every perfect gift received comes to us from above, courtesy of the Father of lights. He is consistent. He won't change His mind or play tricks in the shadows. – James 1:17 (VOICE)

I miss seeing you all and hope you all are well!
