

Today is Mother's Day!

What special things do you have planned for your Mom today?

Normally, in Sunday school we would be making a card and a gift for your Mom's or Grandma's. If you can, I would love if you would still color your mom (or whoever you celebrate today!) a picture or make her a card. Mom's do so much for us every day, today is an opportunity for us to tell them thank you for what they do and how much we love them!

Since we aren't together to make a gift to give, you can give a different kind of gift to her- try to help out extra today. Could you make her lunch or dinner? Maybe get her a cup of coffee or tea (safely!)? What about do a chore for her, like dishes, laundry, yardwork, or something else that needs to be done? It can even be as simple as cleaning your room without being asked or doing your normal chores without being told! You could even do something with her that she would like!

Here are a few poems that you can read to her (and any other special person you are celebrating today!):

My Mother
My friend so dear
Throughout my life
You're always near
A tender smile to Guide my way
You're the sunshine
To light my day

Happy Mother's Day

for all you do you do with love
you are so special
a gift from above
and with all my heart
I want to say
I LOVE YOU MOM
happy mother's day

Have fun celebrating today!

“Honor her for all that her hands have done, and let her works bring her praise at the city gate.” -Proverbs 31:31

“Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.” -Exodus 20:12

Share with me what you do for your Mom (or whoever you celebrate) today!

I miss you all-

Megan
